ONTARIO WILL SHARE COSTS OF WATERWAY

Province Agrees to Spend Millions on St. Lawrence Development

PROGRESS MADE IN NEGOTIATIONS

OTTAWA, July 11 (CP).—Ontario and Dominion Governments will sign an agreement on the St. Lawrence seaway project within a "week or so." This statement was made by Premier George S. Henry, of Ontario, this evening, following conferences with the Dominion Government.

Under the agreement, the Premier said, the Ontario Government and Ontario Hydro Commission will expend between $108,000,000 and $110,000,000. Towards the estimated $85,000,000 cost of "joint works" in the international reach of the St. Lawrence, Ontario will contribute a percentage with the Dominion, he stated.

LARGE SUM
Cost of construction by the Ontario Hydro Commission of powerhouses, transformers and such like for the generation of power will be defrayed by Ontario and is included in the estimated total expenditure from $108,000,000 to $110,000,000.

While Premier Henry was not prepared to state the exact proportion of Ontario's contribution towards the cost of the "joint works," it was estimated that an estimate of $50,000,000 made late today was not quite correct.

ENORMOUS POWER
Carrying out of the St. Lawrence deep waterway scheme by Canada and the United States will bring about the development of 2,000,000 horsepower in the international section. Ontario under the proposed arrangements will have the use of 1,000,000 horsepower. The remaining 50 per cent division of power in the international section will go to the United States.

From an international angle, treaty negotiations on the project between Canada and the United States are proceeding satisfactorily. An early announcement of the signing of a treaty between the two countries is expected.

GERMANY HAS BLOODY SUNDAY

Seventeen Killed and Many Gravely Injured in Political Clashes

BERLIN, July 11 (AP).—While Germany indulged in hot debate about the Lausanne reparations settlement over the week-end, seventeen persons were killed, ten were seriously injured and 181 were seriously injured in political clashes in various parts of the country.

It was the bloodiest Sunday the nation has experienced during all the recent political turmoil, and fighting continued at many points today.

POLICE ARE POWERLESS
One person was killed and three were seriously injured tonight in a street fight between National Socialists and Communists at Oeverungen, near Kassel. Police were powerless in the fray, which lasted an hour and a half.

An attempt was made at Hagen to set fire to a forest where the National Socialists were holding a mass meeting. Twenty persons were injured in subsequent clashes. The cabinet unanimously approved the agreement reached at Lausanne, which was strongly criticized by Herr Hitler.

Four to One in Favor of Working
WELLINGTON, N.Z., July 11 (CP).—The northern coal miners' unions of New Zealand voted by a four-to-one majority to resume work tomorrow on the basis of the agreement reached at a round-table conference with the Government and the coal mine operators, by which proposed wage reductions will be considerably moderated.

Mutual Advantage Being Derived From Agreement

VANCOUVER, July 11 (CP).—The Canadian-Australian trade treaty is working out quite satisfactorily and to the advantage of both countries, said L. R. MacGregor, Australian Trade Commissioner, who arrived in Vancouver from Toronto today on his way to Victoria to meet the Australian delegation to the Imperial Economic Conference. He will be associated with the party while it is in Canada, having been appointed official adviser on all trade matters.

Notwithstanding some minor difficulties that are bound to crop up in a new trading agreement, the MODERN machinery is building a road around the bend of the mighty Columbia River in British Columbia, where no transportation now exists and where virgin bush has to be cleared before tractors can haul machinery in. Meanwhile the foaming river men are working to push this road to completion, the Federal Government having started from Golden to do the eastern section, while the Provincial Government tackled the western section from Revelstoke north. Photo shows progress along this road.

Governor Demands Public Apology or Removal From Post

Viceregal Head in Irish Free State Releases Correspondence With De Valera Regarding Series of Discourtesies—Is Said to Have Asked for His Removal From Office

DUBLIN, July 11 (CP).—His Excellency James McNeill, Governor-General of the Irish Free State, and Eamonn de Valera, President of the Executive Council, had a conference this afternoon over the Governor-General's strong protest about the series of discourtesies with which Mr. McNeill has charged ministers of the De Valera Government.

The outcome of the meeting was not made known. Newspaper reports were the Governor-General had asked to be relieved of his office. It was known that Mr. McNeill had demanded a public apology from the Government or else his own removal from office.

POLITICAL TURMOIL
With the British Government's bill empowering new duties against large exports as they could either go to Britain or over the border into Northern Ireland, and the Free State Government for some time attempting to explain to his fellow Irishmen in the Free State of the correspondence between the Governor-General and the President, it was another day of political turmoil.

The Governor-General had released correspondence with President de Valera last night, including a letter which declared he felt compelled to explain to his fellow Irishmen he had not suddenly become a "coward on account of the attractions of an honorable office."

RELEASES CORRESPONDENCE
Simultaneously the Free State Government forbade publication of the letters, and for a time today Free State Civic Guards attempted to confiscate copies of newspapers entering from Northern Ireland with the letters. Late this afternoon the Free State Government itself released the correspondence.

The correspondence with which the Governor-General charged Free State ministers, of course, were not aimed at Mr. McNeill personally, but at the Government as a whole. In line with the Republican Government's attempt to do away with the letters, late this afternoon the Free State Government itself released the correspondence.

Fig Leaves Ready for Doukhobors
Nature has been kind to the Doukhobors who are to be interned on Plover Island for their dislike for modern ideas of dress. A fig tree has been discovered blooming in the forest cover of the island.

According to officials supervising the construction of compound huts on the new penitentiary area, the Doukhobors may, if they desire to abandon modern dress, supply them with the same.

Just where the fig tree came from, or who planted it, is a mystery to officials; but they claim that it is large enough to supply a generous quantity of leaves for the clothing of the new residents.

BOX PLANT IS RAZED BY FIRE
Dalziel Box Company Starts Reconstruction on Ashes of $60,000 Blaze

Fire destroyed the Dalziel Box Company's factory on Bridge Street early Sunday morning, doing damage estimated at approximately $60,000. Within twenty-four hours of the fire, work was started on the reconstruction of a new plant.

J. W. Dalziel stated there had been no serious interruption in the company's work, as the old plant was immediately put into operation to fill outstanding orders.

WORK STARTED
The new plant, with machinery worth $80,000 to build and about seven weeks' time. Six men were sent to work yesterday morning to clear away the debris caused by Sunday's fire, and actual construction will start next Monday.

Origin of the fire is not known. The first alarm was received at headquarters station at 3:55 a.m., but within a few minutes of the alarm two others were sent in, the flames spreading so rapidly.

SHIELDS ARE USED
The flames quickly swept through the plant as firemen, behind shields, endeavored to approach near enough to play steady streams of water on the burning mass.

MARCH TO QUELL BRAZIL REVOLT
Loyal Troops Sent to Sao Paulo—Rebels Have Powerful Support in South

RIO DE JANEIRO, July 11 (AP).—Loyal troops marched toward the city of Sao Paulo from the south, north and northwest tonight to quell a rebellion which apparently had the support of most of the powerful militia in Brazil's richest and busiest state.

Provisional President Getulio Vargas, whose regime was born of revolution, meanwhile appointed a commission of twenty-one members to draft a new constitution for the nation. Political leaders in Sao Paulo have demanded an early return to constitutional government.

CURRENCY EXPANSION SCHEME IS APPROVED
WASHINGTON, July 11.—Controlled expansion of the currency as an aid to economic recovery was approved today by the United States Senate by an overwhelming vote.

With little debate it adopted 33 to 18 the Glass Bill to add nearly $1,000,000,000 in money to the country's circulating medium, as an amendment to the Home Banking Bill. Final action on the entire measure still remains to be taken.

RAGING FLOOD DEALS DEATH TO VILLAGERS

Churning Waters of Rain-Swollen Creeks Make Hundreds Homeless

DEBRIS AND BODIES STREWN ON BANKS
CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 11.—Two streams, sent roaring out of their banks by heavy rains, swept through a dozen mining villages early today, causing a death toll estimated at from twelve to twenty persons.

Residents along Point and Armstrong Creeks in Kanawha and Fayette Counties were rescued before down by churning waters and many of them were unable to escape before their little homes were flooded.

CHECK IMPOSSIBLE
Wrecked communications prevented an accurate check of the death list but the Kanawha County engineer reported twelve bodies recovered.

Dawn found a dozen or more refugees clinging desperately to improvised rafts and pieces of their homes. Bodies of others were found on banks where receding flood waters had left them.

NAVIGATION IMPEDED
The Kanawha River, into which both creeks empty, bore mute evidence of the havoc. Pieces of houses, furniture, chairs, telephones, poles and other debris covered the river to such an extent navigation was almost impossible except in small boats.

CURTIS IS GIVEN ONE-YEAR TERM

Fine of $1,000 Added—Obstructed Justice in Lindbergh Baby Case

FLEMINGTON, N.J., July 11.—A penalty of one year's imprisonment and a fine of $1,000 was imposed today on John Hughes Curtis for obstructing justice in the Lindbergh baby kidnapping. Immediate appeals were taken to appeal the case.

Curtis stood with his hands behind his massive back, and stared stolidly as the sentence was pronounced. Then he went back to his jail cell while his lawyer in Norfolk, Va., announced friends were raising funds in his behalf.

WILL SEEK RAIL
Lloyd Fisher, Curtis' lawyer here, said he would get in touch with Norfolk friends and try to arrange bail, fixed at $10,000 in a day or two, although the real truth about whether or not he could actually was in contact with the desperate band of kidnappers described by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh has never been established.

Technically, the jury decided he had contact, since the court instructed them they must so find in order to convict.

Looked Different Seen From Aloft
WINNIPEG, July 11.—Fred Hawkins, Winnipeg pioneer, is air-minded at eighty-five years of age. No less than fifty-two years ago he mounted a Biplane, built at St. Paul and rode to Winnipeg. The other day he was back in St. Paul again celebrating his eighty-fifth birthday, and had his first ride in an aeroplane.

When he came down he complained the ride was too short and, after looking at St. Paul from an altitude of 3,000 feet, remarked it had changed a lot in fifty-two years.

BANDIT KILLED WHEN ROBBING GOLF CLUB
CHICAGO, July 11.—One man was killed and two wounded when police clashed with three bandits who attempted to rob the Oak Hill Golf Club of its week-end receipts today. One of the wounded men escaped. The slain bandit and his wounded companion were not identified.

NO REEF FOR SENATE
WASHINGTON, July 11.—The movement to legalize beer met defeat in the United States Senate today as the Bingham Bill to modify the Volstead Act was sent back to committee.

Canada Ready to Admit 8,000 Items Duty Free
OTTAWA, July 11 (CP).—As Canada's contribution to free trade within the Empire, a list of 8,000 items which the Dominion is prepared to admit duty free has been drawn up by Government experts preparing for the Imperial Economic Conference, it is learned.

The result of weeks of study of tariff protection requests from Canadian manufacturing and other interests, the lengthy list, it is felt here, represents an imposing contribution to efforts which will be made at the conference to lower

URGES RETURN TO GOLD BASIS

Directorate of World Bank Declares in Favor of Early Action

BASEL, Switzerland, July 11 (CP).—Representatives of Great Britain, Japan and Sweden, which have suspended the gold standard, joined with the remainder of the directors of the Bank for International Settlements today in issuing a call for return to the gold standard.

Montagu Norman, governor of the Bank of England, the British member of the board, was not present, but his alternate voted for the gold resolution, with Mr. Norman's approval. It was the first public indication of the stand of the Bank of England since Britain suspended the gold standard, September 19, 1931.

DEBT REVISION

The gold resolution, adopted by unanimous vote of the board of directors, look an added significance coming on the heels of the Lausanne agreement to end reparations annuities. It declared that to restore economic normality it would be necessary for the Lausanne accord to be followed "by a satisfactory solution of the war debts."

"Gold," the resolution said, "is the best available monetary mechanism and best suited to make possible a free flow of the world's trade. Measures to re-establish the gold standard should be prepared, the resolution said, and the directors decreed that the World Bank act as a common agency in the task of coming out of the depression, which will begin at the projected World Economic Conference.

"Realization of these measures," the directors resolved, "depends first on action by the governments. Without that, it is beyond the power of the central banks."

KILLED BY PROPELLER

McDONOUGH, Ga., July 11.—A word of thanks for Miss Ruth Ellis James, recently, her life Sunday. She made several flights in an airplane at the dedication of an airport, and was struck dead by the propeller as she turned to thank the pilot.

FRANK PAULDING MEETS CAMPERS

Y.M.C.A. General Secretary Pays Initial Visit to Summer Colony at Maple Lawn

Frank Paulding, new general secretary of the local Y.M.C.A., returned yesterday from a two-day visit to the association's boys' camp at Sooke.

Mr. Paulding expressed himself as being strongly impressed by the orderly way the camp was managed and praised highly the work of Vivian Shismaker, who is in charge of the camp.

Mr. Paulding stated that the camp had that intangible thing called atmosphere and reported that the boys were one and all having a marvelous time.

While visiting the Summer colony, Mr. Paulding had the pleasure of joining in one of the famous Y.M.C.A. camp fires as well as addressing the boys at a vespers on Sunday evening.

Mr. Paulding stated yesterday that the boys' work committee would leave the city this evening to inspect the camp.

ing duties within the Commonwealth.

FOREIGN TRADE

"2. Commercial treaty policy with respect to foreign countries, including inter-alia:

(a) Relation of inter-imperial preferences to concessions to foreign countries;

(b) Interpretation of most-favored-nation clause, particularly with reference to the development of regional preferences and of systems of import quotas;

(c) Consideration of the appropriate basis and means of effecting inter-imperial economic co-operation, including review of existing agencies, examination of the report of the inter-imperial economic committee on industrial co-operation, and discussion of communications and of research and standards.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

(b) Monetary and financial questions:

"Consideration of existing inter-relationships of the various currencies and monetary standards of the Empire, and of the desirability and feasibility of taking steps to restore and stabilize the general price level and to effect an exchange."

(c) Negotiation of trade agreements:

"Announcement of the provisional agenda follows consultations by the Canadian Government with the Governments of the United Kingdom, Australia, New Zealand, Union of South Africa, Irish Free State, Newfoundland, India and Southern Rhodesia. The work of preparation of the program of the conference, questions to be discussed is one of the important preliminaries to the party."

REPLIES CIRCULATED

"Last Winter, Canada prepared a draft agenda which it circulated to the eight other countries of the British Empire. Replies were received and in each instance were transmitted to the other Empire countries. On the basis of the draft agenda and the replies of the several countries, the provisional agenda announced today was prepared."

"The question of export bounties and anti-dumping treaties is on the agenda. Canada has had little experience with export bounties, but some of the other Dominions have very complicated systems of such bounties. One naturally calls to mind the Patterson plan in Australia, but that is not an export bounty in the strict sense. Under it the bunter producers pool a small fraction of the price received from butter sold in Australia to go to the producers who export their product. It varies, at some times ranging as high as five or six cents a pound the Australian exporter of butter receives as a bounty."

DISCUSSED BY COMMONS

"Stabilization of currency was discussed in the House of Commons in the early days of last session. The common following an amendment of Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce, accepted a private member's resolution amended as follows:

"That, in the opinion of this House, the Canadian representatives at the coming Imperial Economic Conference, should initiate and support measures for the stabilization of the currencies of all British countries in such manner as to facilitate trade between the component parts of the Empire and to promote economic unity therein."

Recreation Room Needs More Funds

In supporting an appeal for funds with which to maintain the Citizens' Recreation Room in the Temple Building, Fort Street, Mayor David Leeming yesterday paid tribute to the work that is being carried on by this institution.

"I have taken a great interest in the Citizens' Recreation Room," His Worship said. "It is providing a shelter for men out of work from early morning until late in the evening. I have attended several meetings of the committee in charge of these rooms and find that the institution is being economically conducted."

"During the Summer months the main value of the rooms is to provide a place where the men can go in the evenings to meet their fellows and indulge in reading. But as the Fall and Winter approaches the demand for these rooms will be in full force."

He said that the committee should not allow it to be closed for lack of funds, the Mayor concluded.

NEW MEMBERS ARE OBTAINED

B.C. Agricultural Association Enlists New Blood for Annual Exhibition

Coincident with the announcement that nearly 100 new members had been added to the roster of the British Columbia Agricultural Association was the statement by W. H. Means, secretary, that the membership card taken out during this campaign for new blood in the association would permit the holder to free admission to the Willows ground during fair week.

The membership drive is being conducted by George R. Summerfield and Gerald F. Brown, of the Liberty Sales & Publications Company.

It was reported, yesterday, that merchants are supporting the membership campaign nearly 100 per cent and that their support goes beyond the matter of merely taking out membership. Many of them have undertaken to help in the year show a success by placing exhibits in the various buildings.

The executive of the association is particularly anxious to have new members. The association has been organized and support gained for the organization that in the past has been lying dormant. With such support the officials believe they can make this year's show an even more outstanding success than last year's. Membership tickets may be obtained by telephoning Garden 2442 or applying at the office in the Bayward Building.

While several crews concentrated their attention on the factory, others poured streams of water over nearby houses and the Moore-Whitington mill nearby, which was threatened for a time. After three hours of fighting, the blaze was brought under control and a skeleton crew left behind to watch the smouldering remains.

SAVE SAWMILL

The department succeeded in saving the sawmill and lumber yard but the rest of the plant was a complete loss.

It was a spectacular fire and despite the early hour a large crowd gathered to witness the spectacle.

Mr. Dalziel stated the plant was only partly covered by insurance, but assured a Colonist reporter that a new plant would be in its place in seven weeks' time. In the meantime, orders from Saanich fruit growers for crates are being made up at the old plant, which is running at full load to meet the requirements.

GROWING INDUSTRY

The Dalziel Box Company was established some years ago and since its inception has steadily grown into a substantial industry. Some twenty-five men are employed by the company.

A strange feature of the fire was that the city's air compressor, which was within the fire zone, had its gasoline tank melted at the joint. The gasoline caught fire but did not explode, although long before this happened the machine was badly scorched by the flames.

OREGON BISHOP NOTED ATHLETE

Rt. Rev. William Procter Remington, Distinguished Churchman, Now in City

One of America's most noted clergymen, Rt. Rev. William Procter Remington, Bishop of Eastern Oregon, is a visitor in the city for a few weeks, occupying the pulpit at Christ Church Cathedral on Sundays and making a holiday of the intervening time. A thoughtful as well as eloquent preacher, his sermons are being much enjoyed by the cathedral congregations, and will be for several weeks longer, as he is taking Dean Quainton's place during the latter's absence in England, and will be here throughout July and part of August.

Bishop Remington was only twenty-one years old when he took his B.S. degree from the University of Pennsylvania, and five years later he was granted his B.D. by the Theological Seminary in Virginia. He was ordained deacon in 1905, priest the following year, his first curacy being in Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia. Subsequently he was vicar or rector of Memorial Chapel of Holy Communion, Philadelphia, and of St. Paul's Church, Minneapolis, being rector of the last from 1917 to 1918. It was in the early part of 1918 that he was consecrated suffragan bishop of South Dakota, where he remained until his election as Bishop of Eastern Oregon in 1922, a position he has filled with distinction from the time of his consecration in 1923 up to the present.

At one time he was even better known as an athlete than as a churchman, and in 1900 was selected a member of the Olympic team sent to London and Paris, being placed in charge of track athletics. He is still greatly interested in athletic games of all kinds.

Mrs. Remington is spending the summer here with her husband, and they are occupying the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferris, 1284 Beach Drive, while here.

Finds Jar Bathing In Singapore Sport For Initiated Only

Gordon Sinclair Rescues Maiden in Distress—Was Trapped in Flower-Pot Bathtub—Air-Cooled Beds Require Considerable Explaining

GORDON SINCLAIR

SINGAPORE—The crossroads of the East. Nearest city in the world to the equator. Recruiting ground for circus troupes. Home of man-eating sharks and shark-eating men. Where the national anthem should be "All the Nice Girls Love a Sailor." But Singapore is every inch a city and therefore Singapore is dull. All cities are dull. That's why I live in London.

Grand opera here and traffic lights; big office buildings and noon editions; Coca Cola and Canada Dry, plug hats and race tracks, department stores and glided models; temples, pink lemonade and bridge tournaments. All the old hokey.

For me it was one more bawling out from the braying boss of the black and brown Bombay barge and one more shot in the arm from a carefree medical man. If any more doctors start sticking tubes in my mouth and lights in my ears, I'm going to pick up my bat and ball and come straight home.

SALUTE!—FOR ADMIRAL

At the minute I stepped ashore, runs in harbor roared out a royal salute, which was very nice of them. It happened to be for the admiral of the French fleet, which had just breezed in, but there is no law against thinking it was for me. There was a car about half the size of a moving van. With gasoline ninety-six cents a gallon it costs this lad half a dollar to step on the starter, but he's in the medicine business and money is no object. If a chap here wants to be real nice to his girl friend, he takes her a jar of pills or a bottle of tonic.

I got the usual back room facing an air shaft and spotted the sign. "Gustia will please not get into the bath tub." This seemed a bit novel, so I looked around for a bath tub, and couldn't find one. At that psychological moment I heard a woman's voice demand in a yelp of indignation, "Get me out, somebody. Get me out quick. Quick, I say, get me out."

Always ready to help beauty in distress, I roamed into the hall to seek out the voice. There was a row of shuttered doors there, about the level of a man's head and his knees. Like a street of saloons in the old days. From back of one of them I could hear a woman grunting in dismay, so I knocked and was told "Quick, come in; get me out of here." I walked in and found an empty room. There were feminine fluffy-duffles over a chair, but no wompy.

"Quick, quick," somebody shouted. "Bring an axe or something. Make haste. Do be smart."

STEAMING IN JARS

I stood there bewildered, and then spotted some stairs apparently leading into the ceiling. I went up those and they creaked horribly. At the top was a turn leading into a bathroom. And what a bathroom! The "tub" was just a big vase, one of those big vases Maggie is always breaking over Jiggs' head. A fat, reddish sort of woman, apparently solid into this thing. Only her head and shoulders were out, and these were growing redder and redder.

"What am I, a lobster?" the woman demanded. "I'm boiling alive. Get me out. You should be ashamed, young man. You should be ashamed."

RESCUES LADY

"You get me wrong, lady; I'm just a new guest here. I'll get the matron or housekeeper or somebody. Meantime, pour this cold water into that jar."

"You'll get nobody," she exploded. "Get me out of here. I don't care if you're President Hoover, you bring up a chair and smash this thing."

I went down the creaky stairs again and brought up an iron waste basket. I whanged this against the jar with all my strength, but the fool thing wouldn't break. Then I got a chair and cracked the jar with the first wallop. The woman came tumbling out like a chick with a popping out of an egg. She was all wet and red and flabby like a new baby, so I tossed her a towel and made a getaway.

Back in my own room, I saw a similar pair of stairs, and when I went up there was another big jar with a wooden platform beside it. There wasn't any other bath in the room, and that crazy platform beside the jar sure looked like an invitation to climb in.

GETTING IT STRAIGHT

The bed was funny, too. It had pillows and a long, white, thing shaped like a dummy. What with an upstairs bathroom, a goofy bed and a flower vase for bathing, I thought I'd wanted into the nut house, so went out to get advice. A Chinese boy came slapping along the floor and asked, "You want bath quick, allee allee?"

"Yes, yes—what's this?" I pointed to the long white dummy. "You sleep with him; keep you warm. Man no sleep alone. Sleep with dummy."

"Wait a minute Yip, let's get this. In the hottest city in the world I sleep with a fireless cooker or something to keep warm. I bathe in a flower pot, is that right?"

"Not flower pot; just water jar. I show you. Not fireless cooker, just dummy. I show you again."

He went away to twist some outside gadgets. Then he came in and twisted some inside gadgets. A stream of cold air switched down in the bed. Delightful, cool air. Fit for sleeping, but if a person happened to fall asleep directly under that icy stream, he'd get a cold or perhaps cholera, so everybody is supplied with a woolen companion to place between the sleeper and the wind. Darn clever these Chinese.

INTRICACIES OF BATHING

He creaked upstairs, opened a mysterious door and let out a series of songs. A coolie with water pail on his shoulder pole came in and poured the water on the concrete floor. Then the Chinaman handed me a big dipper. I was invited to stand up to my ankles in water and sluice the other stuff out of the flower pot down my hide into the nut house. I go now, turn off cold air. No can have cold air day time. Just have cold air night time.

I was wondering if the boiled lobster woman had found out about these mysteries, but decided not to inquire. I strolled down to lunch. There was a vast crowded dining room there and two orchestra. Champagne corks were popping and it seemed like a hot time in the old town. The Number One boy hurried me down a slippery dance floor of ebony black to a table marked reserved for Gordon Sinclair.

MEETS HALBURTON

There was a curly-headed fellow there, wearing a monocle and toying with some ghastly-smelling food, and another one who didn't seem to like the odor. I got talking to the other one. We talked about burning up data and considering multi-

"What line you in?" I asked. "Romance," he said.

"Me, too," I echoed, "the royal road to romance."

"Steady up," the chap said, "steady on that royal road to romance stuff. I got that copy-righted."

"You have; how can you copy-right romance?"

"I mean the title. I'm Richard Haliburton." And he was.

We sat talking about the glamorous and distant parts of the world until the head waiter eased us out. So this is Singapore.

Ottawa Polishing Up for Empire Conference

Policemen Will Don the Old Familiar Red—Cranks of Both Sexes Anticipate Arrival of the Real Workers—Opening State Banquet Bringing Orders to Modistes

By CAPT. T. KERR RITCHIE

(Special to The Colonist)

OTTAWA, July 11.—"You bet your life, sir, we're going to have red coats for this here imperial conference. Nothing like a bit of demor." The Royal Canadian Mounted Policeman of "A" Division, who stood at the entrance to the Government printing office, brushed a speck of dust from his blue serge tunic, and stamped his feet energetically. Queer how policemen's feet are always large, whether in London, Delhi, or Ottawa, and even when they happen to be dismounted.

MAGNET FOR CRANKS

Certainly Ottawa is already a magnet to all the cranks with weird ideas who are always to be found in places where international conferences are held. London, for instance, is a place where the phlegm of the central Capital City!

Anyhow, Ottawa is decidedly bent on donning her best garments for the conference. Even the statue of Sir John A. Macdonald, Altogether, it would appear, as the old Arab proverb has it, "A little devil moved a cord of the tent and upset the whole camp," and everybody knows, it takes a lot of demons from the outer regions to move the phlegm of the central Capital City!

Another tiresome species is the individual who seems to have studied economics and sociology, as far as they can be studied, at the University in England, Heidelberg in Germany, and Columbia in New York. He invariably has a plan for the salvation of the universe, and he talks of Peking or Geneva as though they were suburbs of Skookumchuck or Aylin. Que, though what he does not know of these places is evident. Generally, he speaks with a sort of Teutonic or Monarchist accent, something slightly foreign, but whether he is an emissary of Mussolini or Comrade Stalin, or merely a drummer from South Dakota, leaves one thinking.

NEWS MEN GATHER

Oddly enough, most people of this kind are young, and incidentally, they are an eternal delight to newspapermen who foregather at Bowley in Sparks Street or at other well-known points, much as journalists gather around the taverns of Fleet Street in London or the Kurnal Cafe in Geneva.

On the other hand, as a respectable citizen pointed out to me, there are some of the oddest specimens of the feminine sex, intent on advertising peculiar theories. They seem to be afflicted with all sorts of crazes, from world divorce laws to stoppage of the international traffic in beef, or abolition of chewing gum.

The real workroom for the conference delegates will probably be the railway committee room in the Parliament Buildings, which recently resounded to the arguments of the Beauharnois commission, and most points have been well considered, even to the setting aside of a special dining-room and a supply of goat's milk for some of the Indian delegates. There will be a state banquet on the night of July 21 in honor of the distinguished visitors, and one is told on good authority that local high class ladies and modistes are overwhelmed with orders for robes and head confectionery, though the motto would appear to be "a minimum of work and a maximum of pleasure."

ASKS RADICAL FREIGHT CUT

Port Alberni Wants Rate on Lumber Reduced for Six Months' Period

Port Alberni is making an urgent attempt to have the rates on lumber shipments from the Pacific Coast to Prairie points lowered very materially for a six months' period. The resolution covering this came before the directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. After discussion from all standpoints, it was decided to defer action until the views of the British Columbia Lumber Association and the Loggers' Association were obtained.

It was pointed out in the resolution emanating from the Port Alberni Board that the freight rate on a car of lumber to the Prairies was about $400. The value of this lumber would be only about $250. The suggestion was made that for six months' time the freight rates should be cut by 50 per cent.

Among the arguments used in connection with the proposed cut was that with an increased tonnage of wheat coming from the Prairies this year, there was no reason why the cars bringing this lumber to the Pacific should not be loaded with lumber for the return trip rather than hauling them back empty.

J. O. Cameron said that he believed that the lumber operators were behind such a move. The Eastern freight rates would not be affected, it was pointed out, in view of the fact that these went by water, the rate being only about $10 from here to the Atlantic, as compared with $25 by the rail route.

The lumber carried by water to Eastern markets was shipped inland from there to compete with the shipments going to certain points from here.

It was decided to leave the matter until it was ascertained what the lumber men wanted. It would be soon enough to act when they sought help.

Heavy Rainfall Puts Out Fires In B.C. Forests

Heavy rain over many sections of the province has helped the forest fire situation in British Columbia over the week-end, it is reported in the weekly return of the Forestry Branch of the Department of Lands received here yesterday.

The report shows that the number of fires reported to date were considerably below the number reported for the same week of last year. A total of 454 were reported up to and including July 7, as compared with 1,096 in 1931. The Cariboo district is free from fire, Kamloops had 147, South Interior fifty-two, Prince George eighty-nine, Prince Rupert sixty-one and the Vancouver area 108. Vancouver area reports the fire hazard as light. Rain was reported in all other districts.

JASPER PARK, July 10.—Thrilled with the experience of making, in many cases, their first journey back to the land of the heather, some fifty members of the Burns Club party from Victoria and Vancouver, under the direction of Mrs. George Gedrin, passed through here tonight bound for Montreal.

Talk of Scotland, rich with burra, floated over the platform as the travelers, too excited to turn in, took full advantage of the joys of anticipation. Two more Scotland bound passengers swelled the party here, increasing the number that will join the main body at Winnipeg.

SCORING THE SLAM TRICK

As Mr. Charles H. Weissbach, the holder of the South hand pictured below, admits, the bidding of this slam was optimistic in the extreme. Although the combined hands held seven honor tricks, the king of hearts in the North hand was a warning of the duplication of values, and the weakness of the chosen trump suit was such as to make probable that a trick might be lost there as well. However, Mr. Weissbach explained the bidding by saying that it was the last rubber of the evening, and he was considerably minus on the score. Probably that is as good an explanation as any offered. The play, however, made no excuse for the bidding. Mr. Weissbach's handling of the cards was sparkling indeed.

HONOR SOLDIER WITH MEMORIAL

Services Held at St. Paul's Garrison Church for Late Capt. J. C. Woods

St. Paul's Garrison Church, Esquimalt, was filled to capacity on Sunday morning when the military memorial service was held, at 9:30 o'clock, for the late Capt. J. C. Woods, whose death occurred on April 7.

There was a full muster of local military units in charge of Brigadier-General J. Sutherland Brown, D.C.O., the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, to which Capt. Woods belonged, attending in full force. With the next-of-kin and numerous friends of the family the historic little church was crowded to the doors.

The impressive service was in charge of the rector, Rev. F. C. Chapman, assisted by Rev. Canon Arthur Nunna, rector of St. Mary's, Oak Bay. Four hymns were sung, including "Lead, Kindly Light" and "O God, How Wonderful Thou Art." The full vested choir was present, and directed by the organist and choirmaster, A. P. Bassett, chanted the psalms. The organist also played the Chopin funeral march.

Nearly four hundred men, women and children attended the unemployed picnic staged by the National Unemployed Workers' Association at the B.C. Electric Park at the Gorge on Sunday afternoon. A delightful day's outing was enjoyed, and a lengthy programme of twenty-two races staged, including flat races and novelty events.

Ice cream and candy were provided in abundance for the children and an ample supply of refreshments was in evidence. Return street car transportation was provided by the B.C. Electric.

WANT MORE HOME PRODUCTS USED

Duncan Chamber of Commerce Asks to Have Campaign Launched by Markets Branch

The Duncan Chamber of Commerce, in a communication read at the meeting of the directors of the Victoria Chamber yesterday, urged that the markets branch of the Provincial Department of Agriculture should be urged to inaugurate a campaign to encourage more general use of home-grown products by cafes, hotels and various other places, thus making for a greater use of locally-grown produce.

It was represented that local cream could be used in ice cream making, and that fruits, eggs and other produce could be well taken care of to a far greater extent than at present.

It was pointed out by members of the board that there had been a decided campaign carried on by the Junior Chamber of Victoria, with this object in view and much had been accomplished.

On motion of J. O. Cameron, it was decided to advise the Duncan Chamber what had been done. The department will be urged to act upon the suggestion if this campaign can be launched without too much added cost.

WAS TRIED ON MANY CHARGES

Self-Slain Bandit Less Than Two Months Out of Jail

SASKATOON, July 11.—Warden W. J. MacLeod, of Prince Albert Federal penitentiary, is satisfied that Bill Miller, man of twenty aliases and alleged killer of Corporal L. V. Ralls, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, is the same man, who, on January 26, 1928, faced Judge McLorg in Saskatoon district court for sentence on 636 charges of obtaining money and merchandise by false pretences from dealers in this city.

Warden MacLeod said Miller had been released May 13 last after serving two and a half years for crimes at Edmonton, concurrently with which ran a sentence of one year given by Judge McLorg for the Saskatoon offences.

Corporal Ralls was shot and killed near Foam Lake, Sask., last week, when he attempted to intercept a bandit car. Miller shot and killed himself when a posse drew near him after his companions, Bill and Mike Kuralak, had surrendered.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

to letter to the Editor will be inserted next week over the signature and address of the writer. This rule admits of no exception.

SATURDAY'S CRICKET

Sir—I watched a very interesting game of cricket at Beacon Hill Park on Saturday afternoon between Victoria and Five Cs. It was a close and interesting game, and the result shows, being a tie, the teams scoring 80 runs each; but it was a most unsatisfactory way of finishing the match. Why did not the captains of both teams agree to play for another half-hour batting each, and the team that scored most runs be the winner. Then we could have seen some lively cricket, and it would have been worth playing and looking at. It is that that held me back from making my brighter and faster, and I trust if a game ends in a tie again the captains of the two teams will do this.

FREE PORT SCHEME

Richardson and Bradman Make Centuries as Tourists Defeat Ottawa

ANTIPODEANS PILE UP 418 FOR NINE

OTTAWA, July 11 (CP).—The touring Australian cricket team scored 418 runs for nine wickets in their match against a team from the Ottawa Valley Cricket Council here today. Ottawa was all out for 55 runs.

V. Richardson, visiting captain, scored 147, and Don Bradman 105. They played again tomorrow.

The Australians were easy victors, the local cricketers using sixteen batsmen to count their 55 runs.

Ottawa batted first. A. E. Hatley and C. H. Johnson, having the honor of opening the innings for the O.V.C.C., Richardson bowled Johnson with his first ball. Greaves following and only scoring two before being snapped at the wicket by the veteran wicket keeper, H. S. Carter. Other Ottawa batsmen were disposed of in quick order.

In the afternoon Bradman and Kippax batted for Australia after Rife and Carney had scored 12 runs for two wickets. Bowler after bowler was called on by the Ottawans but still the score mounted by leaps and bounds. Kippax scored 16, and Bradman was joined by Richardson before the tea interval. Shortly after tea, Bradman, in trying to drive Hepworth over Bleau Hill, skied the ball which fell into the safe hands of Nichol. Tolhurst joined Richardson and the latter finally registered 147.

The social activities connected with the British Columbia tennis championships being played here this week at the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club were inaugurated on Sunday afternoon when Mrs. A. E. Hodgins entertained about fifty guests at luncheon in honor of the visiting players from the United States and from other parts of British Columbia.

The affair had a delightful informality; after tea, when the hostess was assisted by Lady (Percy) Lake, the visitors wandered about the picturesque gardens, enjoying the magnificent view from the terrace and bluffs. ## Women's Plight Provokes Pity

Another urgent appeal is issued by the Women's Workroom. Funds are pressingly needed, and even the smallest contributions will be gratefully received at the office of Gillespie & Hart, 611 Fort Street, or by Mrs. R. R. Taylor, 1388 Monterey Avenue. The undertaking depends entirely on voluntary contributions, and those in charge trust that friends who have supported the work to date will continue their generous help.

"There are a number of women who, through no fault of their own, have no means of support. The workroom is their only way of earning a very small wage, so much so that the committee finds it absolutely necessary to continue to operate the place at full strength. All this requires funds. The condition is desperate. Think what it means to have absolutely no means of support in these conditions and to have dependent children, not knowing where to turn for assistance," said a member of the committee yesterday in pressing the claims of the work.

As she is a vivacious and able speaker, the report should prove unusually interesting.

SCHOOL BOARDS WILL ECONOMIZE

Trustees Elected in Comox Valley at Well-Attended Annual Meetings

COURTENAY, July 11.—The annual meetings of the consolidated and rural school boards throughout the Comox Valley brought out representative gatherings. The large attendances were doubtless caused by the reclassification of the districts which has, in most cases, put the onus of providing a larger proportion of the teachers' salaries on the school boards.

Comox Consolidated was noticeably affected in this way. Only five out of a total of nineteen would allow their names to stand for office. Balloting resulted in the re-election of James McCulloch and G. H. Ellis, and Eli Robinson will take the place of F. J. Staghall, who refused to accept re-nomination. Various proposals to reduce expenses, including the high school and asking the Courtenay School Board to accept the pupils, were considered.

It was decided to reduce the teachers' salaries by 10 per cent and to curtail the school bus service to the minimum of the contract, which is thirty miles a day.

At Totolom Consolidated, Howard Cox in the chair, a most businesslike meeting was held. All the three retiring trustees were quickly re-elected. Their problem in this district is comparatively easy as, under the new ruling, a considerable portion of the area remains in the favored E. & N. Belt.

At the Royston meeting, Mrs. E. J. Greig was elected to take the place of J. Dunn, and it was decided to send the senior pupils to the Courtenay centre and engage the services of a lady teacher for the junior classes.

At the Minto annual school board meeting, the sum of $314 for running expenses was voted, and it was decided to advise the Government that the district was unable to provide the $1,000 for salaries which would, in some cases, have increased taxes by 400 per cent. Mrs. E. Calnan takes the place of D. L. Stewart, who was unable to qualify for re-election.

SAHLAM PIONEER IS LAID AT REST

SAHLAM, July 11.—The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Payne was held from the residence on Sunday afternoon. The service held in St. Mary's Church was largely attended, many of the old-timers being present. Rev. A. Blachlager conducted the service at the church and graveside. The hymns sung were "Sun of My Soul" and "Abide With Me." Mrs. L. Henslowe was at the organ. The pallbearers were James Menzies, P. Auchincloss, John Castley, J. Y. Copeman, Joseph Jordan and N. C. Evans.

Beautiful floral tributes were received from many relatives and friends. Mrs. Payne came to this district with her husband, J. H. Payne, who died in 1922, from Cook County, Illinois, in 1887, and won many friends. One son, Harry, gave his life in the Great War. The surviving children, Mrs. E. H. Peterson, Mrs. T. H. S. Horsfall, Allan and Fred Payne, were all born in this district and are residents. The sympathy of all is extended them in their bereavement.

Mrs. Payne was in her sixty-fifth year. Interment was made in the family plot in St. Mary's Cemetery, day.

Bishop Preaches At Cobble Hill

COBBLE HILL, July 11.—The Bishop of Columbia preached at the morning service held last Sunday at St. John's Church, Cobble Hill. There was a large attendance. A. E. Whetton presided at the organ.

LANGFORD SCOUT INVESTITURE HELD

LANGFORD, July 11.—A very pleasing investiture ceremony took place at "Marahwood," the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Bullen, on Saturday afternoon, when ten boys were invested in the 1st Langford Wolf Cub Pack by Mrs. A. H. P. Phillips, Cub mistress of St. Barnabas Pack. Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. Bullen assisted.

The troop flag, in charge of Howard Bremley, troop leader, took a prominent part in the ceremony. The 1st Langford Troop formed a horseshoe, under Scoutmaster Captain Wagner, around the circle formed by the Cub. The boys invested were Rodney Bayles, John Haggie (from Shawinigan, who renewed his promise), David Moir, Norton Welch, George Carlow, Ronald Stephen, Billy Moxam, Jeffrey Bullen, Fitzherbert Bullen and Bobby Michelin.

A treasure hunt, won by Scout Charlie Carnegie, and Cub Billy Moxam, was much enjoyed in the spacious grounds; also a balloon and "over-and-under" ball game. Mrs. Bullen served tea to the guests and Mr. Bullen treated the boys to ice cream. Guests present included Mrs. Bullen, Mrs. M. R. Jamieson, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bayles, Mrs. Haggie, Mrs. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Moxam, Mrs. Michelin, Mrs. J. Stephen, Mr. and Mrs. Carlow, Mr. and Mrs. W. Simpson, Mrs. Welch, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Bullen, Miss Patsy Phillips, Mr. Phillips, Rev. H. St. J. Payne, Mr. Meila and Mr. P. Moir.

A hearty vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Bullen for their hospitality was given.

Johnson, after a lingering illness at her home, King's Heath, Birmingham. The funeral will be held tomorrow.

SCHOOL MEETING HEARS REPORTS

METCHOSIN Ratepayers Find Everything Satisfactory—Will Install Needed Improvements

METCHOSIN, July 11.—The annual ratepayers' meeting was held on Saturday evening at Metchoosin school. There was a large attendance, with H. G. Pierce in the chair.

The trustees' report showed that there were twenty-two pupils on the roll, and that general discipline and control were good and the teaching satisfactory, also that the playground had been supplied with the gymnasium equipment, schoolyard drained and gravel laid.

The financial report showed a very satisfactory balance this year, $700 being voted for school expenses, which was $200 less than last year.

Mrs. I. Jones was elected trustee in place of M. Milne, who has resigned, having been a trustee for the past nine years. H. G. Pierce was re-elected auditor.

It was decided to have a fire escape made and electric light put in the school. The trustees voted a motion of regret for the resignation of Miss K. Hartie, who has been teaching at the school for the past three years, also a vote of thanks was given to H. G. Pierce as chairman and auditor.

LANGFORD HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Dixon gave the financial report. Ernest Le Queune was elected trustee for the next three years and H. A. Hincks was re-elected auditor.

The trustees were authorized to pay a bill for pupils' fees due the high school, also to try immediately to purchase land to enlarge the school ground. The maximum amount to be paid was stipulated. The secretary was requested to write a letter of thanks to Mrs. Jackson, the retiring trustee, who now lives in Victoria, also to the teachers, thanking them for the interest taken in their work. Votes of thanks were passed to the trustees and auditor.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

HELPING TO HEAL THE MIND

That nature will heal or cure must be admitted—the abscess will empty itself; the cold in the head will disappear; the attack of indigestion or diarrhoea will pass over; the broken bone will mend.

But does this mean that nature should not be helped or guided? Heat applied to the abscess, the removal of the wastes from the intestine and rest in bed for the cold, the use of castor oil in diarrhoea; the placing together of the broken ends of the bone and the application of a splint, are the simple but effective ways that are used to help nature. Without these human aids you can readily understand how the abscess might go on to a general poisoning of the system; the cold to bronchitis, pneumonia, pleurisy or tuberculosis; the diarrhoea to a serious thinning of the blood; and the broken bone to an actual crippling of the individual.

In fact it must be admitted that even the simple ailments of the first mentioned above might easily cause the death of the individual were it not for the human interference.

However, there is something more than physical ailments in this life of ours. There are the ailments of the mind, ailments which make many individuals unable to go out among their fellow human beings and take their natural or rightful place.

This isn't due to any lack of brains; many of these so afflicted would rank 100 or even more than 100 per cent in a mental test.

But something has happened, given them a slant on or an idea of life that is not like the slant or idea of the majority of the people.

Now just as the physician and surgeon aid nature to bring about the best results, so can properly-qualified physicians, chiropractors, priests and other laymen often help these mental cases back to normal.

Just as a surgeon finds it necessary to open the abdomen to find the exact cause of the symptoms and so bring about a cure, so do those healing mental cases find it necessary to go down deep into the conscious and unconscious self of the patient to find the cause of the mental twist or notion that prevents the individual being like, and living with, normal people.

In former days it was often discovered by hypnotizing the individual and thus learning these "inner thoughts." Nowadays it is done by careful and sympathetic questioning. When it is brought to light, and the patient learns how simple, foolish or unimportant it is, he is about ready to take his place in the world with normal people.

Black: "What did my father advise when you told him you loved his daughter, but had only a hundred dollars saved up?"

White: "He advised me to invest it all in a one-way railway ticket with no stop-overs!"

World's Largest Flying Boat Will Be Launched Soon

With Wings Spreading 120 Feet and Driven by Six 825-Horsepower Motors, Great Craft Could Carry 100 Passengers

Launch and first flying trials are imminent of the largest military flying boat in the world, a giant 5,000-horsepower biplane, which weighs, when fully loaded, more than thirty-three tons. Designed for long-range reconnaissance duty in distant parts of the British Empire, this new flying ship is equipped to operate for long periods away from its base, and is sufficiently seaworthy to withstand easily any weather conditions met while aloft, except the heaviest ocean gales.

In military form, the boat, which is designed and constructed by Short Brothers, will carry a crew of ten and an immense fuel load for nonstop journeys over distances of many hundreds of miles. If it were modified for commercial use the craft might carry with ease up to one hundred passengers and their luggage. From tip to tip the huge biplane wings measure 120 feet; the hull is 89½ feet long and 31½ feet deep. Stainless steel and light alloys are the sole materials employed in construction. Between the wings are set six 825-horsepower Rolls-Royce "Buzard" engines, arranged in three tandem pairs in streamlined nacelles.

PLANE MOTHER SHIP
Much is expected from flying ships of this size, which, should, within the near future, operate regular transoceanic air services. The Royal Air Force fleet, craft of this kind are envisaged as performing duties towards a squadron of smaller flying boats similar to those of a submarine "mother ship." The idea is that such an aerial flotilla would be able to reconnoitre and patrol an immense area of ocean with a speed and certainty that the fastest surface cruiser could not hope to approach. The flying "mother ship" would carry a big load of spares and workshop repair equipment for the benefit of the smaller craft, and at need would fly back at high speed to the nearest base for additional supplies.

Takes Excursion Every Wednesday

OPERATING in connection with the Vancouver Island Coach Lines in a combined land and water trip, the motor vessel Cy Peck is continuing the popular outings inaugurated on Wednesdays last. Tomorrow the Cy Peck will cruise from Swartz Bay to Ganges Harbor and through Captain Pass and Trincome Channel.

craft possesses particular importance for Great Britain, because of the enormous long sea route which link the Empire and need protection and efficient patrol in time of war. Many air strategists believe, too, that the very large flying boat, if suitably armed, probably with guns firing small shells, would become a most formidable offensive and defensive weapon.

LESS EXPENSIVE
In commercial use, the large flying boat may be expected to obviate any need for the airship. Though its range is not so great as that of the large rigid airship, the flying boat, the flying boat should be approximately twice as fast and less expensive to maintain and operate. An important point in considering the future of the big commercial flying boat is that the engine arrangement and general design of the new British machine, with the engines located high above the hull, may be expected to provide exceptionally quiet accommodation in the space that would be occupied by the passenger cabins.

NEW SERVICE CONTEMPLATED

East Asiatic Company May Establish Steamship Line to Orient

Probability that the East Asiatic Company will establish a new freight and passenger service between Pacific Coast ports and the Orient, has been announced by Christian Jensen, president.

According to Mr. Jensen, a regular monthly service from the Pacific Northwest, Los Angeles and San Francisco direct to Shanghai and Hongkong only, returning over the same route, is contemplated. The motorship Julanda, first to be assigned to this service, left Europe last week for the North Pacific, and will load in late August. The first sailing to the Orient will be from San Francisco about September 1.

The East Asiatic Company operates a fleet of fast motor vessels including the new America and Europa in the Pacific Coast-Europe service, via the Panama Canal, and also a fast service from Europe to Siam, China and Japan via the Suez Canal. The contemplated new Pacific Coast-Orient service will connect with these two lines, to give the East Asiatic Company a round-the-world service.

DIESEL CRAFT
Twenty-two days is the calculated running time from San Francisco to Shanghai. The Julanda, a Diesel craft of 7,500 tons deadweight, was formerly in the European-Bangkok line of the company. She has superior accommodations for a limited number of passengers.

Formation of the Chinese-American Shipping Company, to act as subagents for the Chinese freight and passenger service, was announced by Jensen. The personnel of the company will include leaders in Chinese banking, shipping and commercial activities in all principal Pacific Coast cities.

Vancouver Shipping
VANCOUVER, July 11.—Five passengers for England were on board the Pacific Pioneer of the Furness Line, which sailed on Saturday evening. They were Miss C. E. Petter, Mrs. Catherine Vulliamy, Mrs. Mabel West, Miss Catherine West and Mrs. J. K. Wardell.

The destroyers H.M.C.S. Skeena and H.M.C.S. Vancouver left here at 11 o'clock this morning for Belingham to pay an official visit to that port.

Fifty-one passengers from California are due here early this week on Danish East Asiatic Ma. Europa, now coming up the Coast. A large number of European passengers disembarked at Los Angeles and San Francisco. Among the Californians are five priests, Rev. Richard Hennessey, Rev. Joseph Turant, Rev. Henry Gross, Rev. Leo Murphy and Rev. Robert E. Lucey, all from Los Angeles.

that picture, David O. Selznick, executive vice-president in charge of RKO production, has decided to co-feature them as a romantic team. Their first picture follows "Young Bride" immediately.

The three leading performers are supported by a strong cast, including Roscoe "Stuttering" Ates, Polly Walker, Cliff Edwards, Allen Fox and Blanche Friderici. William S. Suter directed the picture, which Garrett Fort adapted from the stage play by Hugh Stanislaus Stange.

DOMINION Eddie Quillan, who THEATRE plays the starring part in the RKO-Pathé picture "Sweepstakes," now at the Dominion Theatre, is a vaudeville performer of long standing, despite the fact that he is only twenty-three years of age, and has been playing starring roles on the screen for some time. With him in the cast of his latest picture, "Sweepstakes," are James Gleason, stage comedian, Marion Nixon, Lew Cody, Frederick Burton, Emma Dunn, Paul Hurst and Tom Jackson.

EMPIRE "Spectacular scenes of THEATRE a kind that have never been flashed on the screen 'before or since' are now being shown at the Empire Theatre in 'Forgotten Commandments.' This stirring dramatic romance about ultra-modern life in a present-day big city contains as a logical sequence in its fast-action story, excerpts from the famous Cecil B. De Mille classic, 'The Ten Commandments.'"

PLAYHOUSE Ralph Graves, who THEATRE plays light-hearted parts so delightfully, is cast in a natural in "A Dangerous Affair," the Columbia mystery thriller with a humorous treatment, showing today and tomorrow at the Playhouse Theatre. He plays a lazy and charming newspaper reporter who resorts to one wise-crack after the other. He is co-starred with Jack Holt, who enacts a role that is a perfect foil for Graves' flippant foolery.

COLUMBIA Central Park, New THEATRE York, forms the background for much of the action of "The Man Who Played God," George Arliss' latest starring vehicle for Warner Bros. pictures, which is now at the Columbia Theatre. The story was filmed in California, so it was necessary to replace Central Park in and around the studio. The Central Park scene was made with such identity, however, that even new Yorkers were unable to detect any faults at the premiere.

ROMANO Elliott Nugent and J. THEATRE. G. Augustus, his father, who will appear prominently in Universal's "The Virtuous Husband," now at the Romano Theatre, are members of one of the most famous theatrical families in the world. They have written many successful plays together, including "The Poor Nut," "Kempy," "Money to Burn" and others.

GERTRUDE ASTOR IN PLAYHOUSE PICTURE

After a long absence from the screen, due to illness, Gertrude Astor appears in a characteristic role of a gold-digger in support of Fannie Brice in the United Artists all-singing and talking picture, "Be Yourself," coming to the Playhouse Theatre Thursday. The blonde actress gives an exceptional interpretation of a hard-boiled chorus girl to whom every man is a potential victim. Others in the cast of this screen musical comedy of the cabaret and prize-ring are Robert Armstrong, Harry Green, G. Pat Collins, Budd Fine, and the fourteen-year-old wonder singer, Jimmy Tolson.

What Today Means

"CANCER"
If today is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11 a.m. to 12:35 p.m., from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. and from 10:10 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. The danger periods are from 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. and from 3 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. An exciting, but not necessarily pleasant, day is augured for July 12. The astrological influences will promote irritability and touchiness, and the pressure may be reduced through an exhalation of fiery words which will create hard feelings. Not much worth-while will be sent to the mill.

Children born on this July 12 will have avaricious natures, not only for knowledge, but will have an eye open for ways and means to pick up a dime or so. They will have quick and relentless memories, a flair for figures, intense likes and dislikes, and a keen sense of humor. A well ordered life, conducted with the utmost propriety, is the reputation which you enjoy, if born on July 12. The rigorous monotony of good conduct seldom bores you, and you have little desire to look into the land of adventure. You are scrupulously attentive to detail, practical and always busy—never too busy to attend to everything. You intend to do your duty at whatever the cost to yourself or others. You put people into two types, those that are good and those that are not good, according to your own standards, and the latter you feel free to damn.

You like to keep by yourself and appear less amiable than you really are. You are quite lively and less stilted of mien when in your own home and strangers are not about. There is nothing cheap about you, and although you are a conservative buyer, you know how to choose

You will always try to ward off illnesses, and may suffer seriously from not giving to your job, to your home, or to something. ## FISHERMEN ACCEPT TERMS OF PACKERS

Negotiations between fishermen at Skeena and the canneries have been completed, according to information received here yesterday by wireless from Provincial Police officers located in that area. The fishermen have agreed to a price of thirty cents a fish, offered by the canneries last week. The fishermen had demanded forty cents, but canneries officials declined to accede to the demand and offered the thirty-cent rate as a compromise. The price paid by the canneries up to the time negotiations were entered into was twenty-seven and a half cents. The fishermen at Rivers Inlet have yet to complete negotiations with the canneries in that area, it was stated.

MUCH INTEREST IN CONFERENCE

Beneficial Results From Ottawa Gathering Indicated,
Declares Gyro Speaker

Indication that the Imperial Conference to be held in Ottawa this month will have a greater effect on trade revival than any which have preceded it, because of the intense interest being shown by the delegates and the careful preparation which they are making for it, was given by John Gough, B.A., M.A., of the Provincial Normal School, during an address on "Imperial Conferences Since 1887," given before the Gyro Club yesterday.

Prior to 1887 little significance was attached to the conferences which were then known as Colonial Conferences. Mr. Gough stated. In 1880, Great Britain had little interest in the progress of her colonies, but towards 1870 this attitude changed and "Federation was in the air" which led to a need for economic unity. At the conference in 1887, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, then Premier of Canada, introduced the policy of national autonomy, which has been carried through to the present time by Liberal and Conservative representatives in their desire to have Canada first, he declared.

CANADA HONORED

The coming conference is the second economic gathering since 1887, and is the second to be held outside Great Britain. For this reason, he felt, Canada was distinctly honored in being chosen for the gathering.

The speaker reviewed at length the conferences which have been held since 1887 and the chief topics discussed. The first conference was brought about by the Imperial Federation League, formed in 1870, with the support of all prominent statesmen, he said, who petitioned authorities to call together Prime Ministers of the Dominions for a formal discussion on matters affecting all of them.

Thirty years ago, Joseph Chamberlain, who, the speaker stated, had always played a leading part in the conference, stated that "within the Empire there is a self-sustaining economic unit," and this fact is being realized today.

EXPECT RESULTS

Dealing with the preparations of the respective delegates, Mr. Gough said that the British representatives were prepared to accept Imperial preference and the lowering of tariff barriers. This topic has always been dealt with at these conferences, and from the attitude of all the delegates, he expressed the thought that there would probably be definite results in this respect from the Ottawa conference.

The Canadians and Australians, he continued, are advocating Imperial preference and seeking to enlarge their markets. In Canada there was a partial feeling on the matter of Imperial preference, he said, as the Eastern markets were not anxious for it, while the Western farmers are supporting it. Both countries are anxious to guard their secondary industries, he stated. New Zealand is seeking increased prices and stabilization of credit.

The great interest in Canada over the conference is exemplified by the preconference gathering, Mr. Gough stated, as he reviewed many which have been held throughout the Dominion.

"Grandpa, will you give me a drum for my birthday like you gave Jack?"
"Why?"
"His father gives him a shilling a week not to play it."

ELKS NOSE OFF TILLCUMS TO KEEP IN RUNNING

Lodgemen Eke Out 6 to 5 Victory Over Youthful Clubmen

Early Lead of Antlered Tribe Brings Victory After Four-Run Rally of Tillicums in Fourth Frame—Darkness Halts Game in Seventh

Next game, tomorrow—Sons of Canada vs. Green Mill.

Taking an early lead by scoring twice in the first and adding three more runs in the third, Elks jumped right back into the running in the Senior Amateur Baseball League, last night, at the Royal Athletic Park, by noosing out the Tillicums, 6-5. The next game, tomorrow evening, between the Sons of Canada and Green

Mills, will be important, as first berth will be at stake. The teams are tied at present with seven victories and three reverses. Jimmy Kennedy pitched for the Elks and only had one bad inning, when the Tillicums bunched four safeties for a like number of runs. He struck out nine, and not one of the Tillicums received a free ticket from him. Tommy Musgrave did the heavy work for the Tillicums, and was a little wilder than on previous appearances. Leading 5-1, at the end of the third it looked as if the antlered tribe were going to have a walk-away, but three doubles off the bat of Burgeon, M. Patrick and Albie Worthington, along with a single by L. Patrick, put the Tillicums back in the battle in the fourth inning. The next three innings neither team scored and the game ended in the seventh on account of darkness.

New Saddle Champs

By HARDIN BURNLEY

PETE BOSTWICK—WEALTHY YOUNG SPORTSMAN AND GENTLEMAN JOCKEY, WHO PROVED HIMSELF A FIRST CLASS RIDER BY HOLDING HIS OWN WITH THE BEST AT ACQUEDUCT.

HANK MILLS—BRILLIANT LITTLE JOCKEY WHOSE GREAT RIDING HAS MADE HIM AN UNDISPUTED FAVORITE WITH THE TURF FANS!

EASTERN turf enthusiasts are all afoot over two new riders whose performances on the tracks have been little short of amazing. Little Hank Mills, apprentice jockey, who had the patrons of the Florida tracks applauding and shouting his praises during the past winter, has attracted a following such as Earle Sande and Laverne Fator had in their heyday. The other is George H. "Pete" Bostwick, millionaire amateur jockey and long famed as a steeplechase rider. These two have created more interest in riding within the past few weeks than the Eastern turf has known in many a season. Little Hank, just sixteen and with a round, boyish face and a Huckleberry Finn smile, has been booting home two and three winners a day. Already his string of victories since the beginning of the year has mounted well over the 100 mark. Since he has been in New York his winning mounts number forty or more. Last year at Agua Caliente he was the leading jockey and later at Miami his work attracted the attention of rich turfmen and there was some spirited bidding for his services and contract. The younger is now riding for Mrs. H. C. Phipps's Wheatley stable, and, according to reports, is dragging down a rather fancy salary. Hank's home is in Montecito, Cal., and he has been riding horses ever since he was old enough to sit in a saddle by himself. He is a good-looking intelligent youngster with reddish brown hair and blue eyes, weighs little more than ninety pounds and is only four feet seven inches in height. That weight bugaboo, which has confounded so many stars of the saddle, will probably never be one of Hank's worries. His frame is small and even when he fills out, as is natural, the added weight won't be much. He had his first racing experience in the British Columbia Western tracks a little over a year ago and his success began almost immediately. He is a great little rider and experts of the turf predict a brilliant future for him. "Pete" Bostwick, long famed as an amateur steeplechase rider, has been piloting his own horses over the Eastern tracks. Only recently he engaged in a stirring stretch duel with the veteran professional jockey, Mack Garner. "Pete" emerged victorious and his riding caused prominent horsemen to predict that he would soon be one of America's leading jockeys. Bostwick intends to continue riding in both flat and steeplechase races. He intends buying more horses and he will be sure to have plenty of mounts. He now has a half-dozen or more flat racers and some star jumpers. Perhaps these two will soon be giving track followers some riding duels reminiscent of the early days of Sande and Fator.

Park. Nosed out for first, Lagrange took second, with Captain Danger beating Red Mountain for third.

Favorites were well to the fore. War Salaam, in the sixth, paid off at $30.50 on the nose for the highest price of the day.

Kolapore Cup Team Shoot Will Feature Bisley Meet Today

Canadian Squad for Historic Event Chosen—Sgt. Jensen Leads Dominion Shots in St. George's Vase—Evans and Richardson Well Down

BISLEY CAMP, England, July 11 (CP).—A selected team of eight Canadian marksmen battle with teams representing the Mother Country, India, Jersey and Guernsey over the Bisley ranges tomorrow afternoon in the annual shoot for the historic Kolapore Cup, one of the Bisley meeting's two much-prized team trophies. The other is the MacKinnon Cup, Thursday.

Ten shots per man at each of the 300, 500 and 600-yard distances are the Kolapore conditions. The match was first held in 1871 and Canada first won it in the following year. Since then Canada has taken the great trophy thirteen times, losing it in 1920 to the Mother Country, and failing last year to regain it by only four points.

The Canadian team was announced tonight, as follows: Lieut. Desmond Burke and Company Sgt. Major H. Rusk, of Ottawa; Lieut. G. E. Matchett and Lieut. R. A. Sweet, of Hamilton; Captain J. W. Houlden, of Sherbrooke, Que.; Sgt. Alex Parnell, of Verdun, Que.; Company Sgt. Major G. M. Ennis, of Toronto, and Quarter-master-Sgt. H. W. Burton, of Calgary.

ARTHUR WILL FACE NENOFF ON THURSDAY

Middleweights Rematched in Bout to Finish on Wrestling Card

BYLUND TO MEET BROOKS IN SEMI

Ernie Arthur, Canadian middleweight champion, and Steve Nenoff, rough and rugged Bulgarian, have been rematched for the headliner on this week's wrestling show to be staged at the Tillicum Gymnasium Thursday evening at 8:45 o'clock. Last Saturday the Canadian titleholder was given the verdict over Nenoff in the last round on a foul. In order to decide matters for all time, the pair will struggle to a finish this week. In the five eight-minute round semi-final Bobby Bylund, Minneapolis, will tackle "Rocky" Brooks, Victoria's fast-stepping heavyweight. "Fat" Griffin and Bruce Lowe, two local lads, will tangle in a finish bout in the curtain raiser.

When the decision was rendered against the Bulgarian he became overhauled and it took Chief of Police Healey to stop Nenoff as he started after the referee to show his disapproval. Promoter Richardson said he would give the Bulgarian another chance at the crack Canadian grappler and so matched them again for this week. The bout should be a thriller and the fans are expected to see plenty of action. The Bylund-Brooks mix is expected to show both lads at their best. Brooks will outweigh his opponent by several pounds and will be the favorite. Griffin and Lowe have been coming along at a fast pace and are evenly matched.

FIGHT ENDS IN RIOT; VERDICT IS THE TROUBLE

MARSEILLES, France, July 11 (AP).—A fifteen-round bout between Al Brown, Panama negro, recognized in some quarters as heavyweight champion, and Kid Francis, of Italy, ended in a riot last night when the crowd stormed the ring at the end of the fight. The referee, who was manhandled and manhandled the American judge, Dr. G. V. Sparks. The bout finally was called "no contest."

Doctor Dick's Letter Box
TIM MATSON

Dear Doctor,
I've got the most peculiar pains in the corner of my heels. I also want a new piano cover and some caraway seeds for the linoleum. When the butcher comes now I always call him "George," whereas there was a time when I distinctly remember calling him "Sid," and that's making me sad, too!

Oh, well—I suppose there's no sense worrying! If I can get to Montreal before the lily pond dries up, all ought to be well—and if that fails me, I can always fall back on my head. I've got a new head, now—the way I broke the last one, falling back on it. I see? Isn't the coming from Montreal, here—and where's all the tobacco juice coming from? When are they going to let me out?

Dear Helen,
It's quite all right, dear—they'll be letting you out very soon. You were a silly girl to drink so much, but the "wrigglers" will soon disappear, and in a week or so the snakes will have swum back to South Africa. Never mind about the pains in your heels, but rub them with warm milk in the twilight. I've already mailed you the piano cover and the caraway seeds, and they're just dying to see you. I was talking to the butcher this morning, and he says he doesn't care a hoot if you call him "Sidney B. Wood" or "Sidney Australia!" Wasn't that sweet of him—especially as he's so fond of egg plants?

Why don't you go to Montreal instead of to Montreal? Montreal's really much higher—in fact, I've no use at all for Montreal—but don't let that mislead you! Just at the moment, I can't tell where the tobacco juice is coming from, but I suspect the propensity of scaffolding and bricklayers.

Isn't the swans lovely in the Parliament Buildings, and how can there be so many people round, in Leicester Square? When are we going to have another dance, Helen? Please let me know—not later than if you can arrange it—I'd dance best on Thursdays, if there's a regatta on anywhere. Why don't we—hey? I'm having a relapse myself! Go away, Helen! First thing I know, I'll be joining you. Go to bed, at once! Go on! Shoo! Bo!

Lovingly, D. D.

GERMAN NET TEAM DOWNS ENGLISHMEN

Teutons Eliminate England From Davis Cup Tennis Series

BERLIN, July 11.—Germany's Davis Cup tennis team upset Great Britain's squad, three matches to two, to enter the final round of the European zone competition yesterday.

Leading two matches to one after the first two days' play, Great Britain lost both of the final day's singles matches. Goldfried von Cramm evened the count at two-all when he defeated Bunny Austin, 5-7, 6-2, 6-3, 6-2 and Daniel Prenz clinched the series with a five-set triumph over Fred Perry, 6-2, 6-4, 3-6, 6-6, 7-5.

Great Britain won the doubles Saturday and the first two singles matches were evenly divided. Prenz beating Austin and Perry defeating Von Cramm.

The result of the series was totally unexpected. Britain had been favored to reach the final in the European zone.

NANAIMO SOFTBALL

NANAIMO, July 10.—The Mosquitos traveled to Newcastle Island yesterday afternoon and played two games with the James Island crew, who were up on an excursion tour. The locals lost the first baseball game, 7-5, but came back strong to win the second, 6-3, both scores indicating the closeness of the play. The batteries for the first game were: James Island, Devlin and Rivers; Mosquitos, Naylor and McDougal. Second game: James Island, Smith and Rivers; Mosquitos, Terry and Naylor. Ernie Kelly umpired both games.

A fox took its own photograph by touching a cord which had been placed with a camera in a wood in England recently.

NAPOLEON AND UNCLE ELBY

By Clifford McBride

DEAR READER—

Here's another foolish comic strip to add to the millions you have to read to the kids.

If you think that's tough on you, consider me, I've got to draw it! I can't promise you the stuff will always be funny but at any event it won't be tragic. Bricks and misery are out in this strip. Also there'll be little conversation. I hate lettering.

I forgot to tell you—that's UNCLE ELBY with the umbrella in the first picture. When he gets the dog turned around I'll introduce you to NAPOLEON.

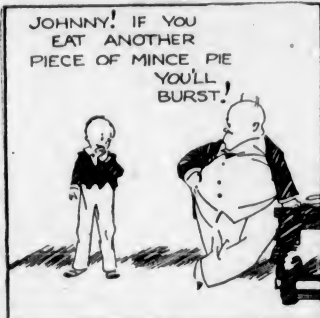

Well this is the kind of predicament you get in when you start a comic strip before you have your characters under control. I'll introduce Napoleon tomorrow. Clifford McBride

GESE IN LARGE CONTRACT
Feathers from nearly 1,500,000 geese will be necessary to complete a contract made as a result of the recent British Industries Fair in London. One of the exhibitors has received an order from a Montreal company, one of the largest wholesale firms in Canada, for the supply of half a million shuttlecocks. The contract is worth $37,500, par exchange, and involves deliveries over a number of years. Each shuttlecock requires sixteen goose feathers of such a special nature that each goose yields only six. The shuttlecocks must vary by very few grains from the standard weight, eighty-two grains—and there are 480 grains in an ounce.

MURDER & HAZELMOOR

by AGATHA CHRISTIE

CHAPTER X

The inquest on the body of Captain Trevelyan was held on Monday morning. From the point of view of sensation it was a tame affair, for it was almost immediately adjourned for a week, thus disappointing a large number of people. Between Saturday and Monday Exhampton had sprung into fame. The knowledge that the dead man's nephew had been detained merely the whole affair spring from a mere paragraph in the newspapers to gigantic headlines. On the Monday, reporters had to be turned away from the large numbers. Mr. Charles Enderby had reason once more to congratulate himself on the superior position he had obtained from the purely fortuitous chance of the football competition prize.

It was that journalist's intention to stick to Major Burnaby like a leech. And under a pretext of photographing the latter's cottage, to obtain exclusive information of the inhabitants of Sittaford and their relations with the dead man. It did not escape Mr. Enderby's notice that at lunch time a small table near the door was occupied by a very attractive girl. She was well dressed in a demure and provocative style, and did not appear to be a relation of the deceased, and still less could be labeled as one of the idle curious.

"I wonder how long she's staying," he thought. Mr. Enderby. "Rather a pity I am going up to Sittaford this afternoon. Just my luck."

But shortly after lunch, Mr. Enderby received an agreeable surprise. He was standing on the steps of the Three Crowns when he was aware of a voice, an extremely charming voice, addressing him. "I beg your pardon—but could you tell me—if there is anything to see in Exhampton?"

Charles Enderby rose to the occasion promptly. "There's a castle, I believe," he said. "Not much to see—but perhaps you would allow me to show you the way."

"That would be frightfully kind of you," said the girl. "If you are sure you are not too busy—"

Charles Enderby disclaimed immediately the notion of being busy. They set out together.

"You are Mr. Enderby, aren't you?" said the girl.

"Yes. How did you know?"

"Mrs. Belling pointed you out to me."

"Oh, I see."

"My name is Emily Trefusis. Mr. Enderby—I want you to help me."

"To help you?" said Enderby. "Why, certainly—but—"

"You see, I am engaged to Jim Pearson."

"Oh!" said Mr. Enderby, journalistic possibilities rising before his mind.

"And the police are going to arrest him. I know they are. Mr. Enderby, I know that Jim didn't do this thing. I am down here to prove he didn't. But I must have someone to help me. One can't do anything without a man. Men know so much and are able to get information in so many ways that are simply impossible to women."

"Well—I—yes, I suppose that is true," said Mr. Enderby complacently.

"I was looking at all these journalists this morning," said Emily. "Such a lot of them I thought had such stupid faces. I picked you out as the only really clever one among them."

"Oh! I don't think that's true, you know," said Mr. Enderby still more complacently.

"What I want to propose," said Emily Trefusis, "is a partnership. There would, I think, be advantages on both sides. There are certain things I want to investigate—to find out about the way in your character of journalist can help me. I want—"

Emily paused. What she really wanted was to engage Mr. Enderby as a kind of private sleuth. To go where she told him, to ask the questions she wanted asked, and in general to be a kind of bond slave. But she was aware of the necessity of couching these proposals in terms at once flattering and agreeable.

"I want," said Emily, "to feel that I can depend upon you."

She had a lovely voice, liquid and alluring. As she uttered the last sentence a feeling rose in Mr. Enderby's breast. This lovely helpless girl could depend upon him to the last ditch.

"It must be ghastly," said Mr. Enderby, and taking her hand, he squeezed it with fervor.

"But you know," he went on with a journalistic reaction, "my time is not entirely my own. I mean, I have to go where I am sent."

"Yes," I have thought of that, and that you see, is where I come in. Surely I am what you call a "scop"? You can do an interview with me every day, you can make me say anything you think your readers will like. Jim Pearson's fiancée. Girl who believes passionately in his innocence. Reminiscences of his childhood which she supplies. I don't really know about his childhood, you know, she added, "but that doesn't matter."

"I think," said Mr. Enderby, "that you are marvelous. You really are marvelous."

"And then," said Emily, pursuing her advantage, "I have access naturally to Jim's relations. I can get you in there as a friend of mine where quite possibly you might have the door shut in your face."

A glorious prospect opened out before Mr. Enderby. He had been in luck over the affair all round. "It's a deal," he said fervently. "Good," said Emily, becoming brisk and businesslike. "Now what's the first move?"

"I'm going up to Sittaford this afternoon."

He explained the fortunate circumstance which had put him in such an advantageous position with regard to Major Burnaby. "Because, mind you, he is the kind of old buffer that has been newspaper men like poison. But you can't exactly push a chap in the face who has just handed you $5,000, can you?"

"It would be awkward," said Emily. "Well, if you are going to Sittaford, I am going with you."

"Splendid!" said Mr. Enderby. "I don't know, though, if there's anywhere to stay up there. As far as I know, there's only Sittaford House and a few old cottages belonging to people like Burnaby."

"We shall find something," said Emily. "I always find something."

Enderby could well believe that Emily had the kind of personality that soars triumphantly over all obstacles.

They had arrived by now at the ruined castle, but paying no attention to it, they sat down on a piece of wall in the so-called sunshine and Emily proceeded to develop her ideas.

"I am looking at this, Mr. Enderby, in an absolutely unsentimental and businesslike way. You've got to take it from me, to begin with, that Jim didn't do the murder. I'm not saying that simply because I am in love with him or believe in his beautiful character or anything like that. It's just well-known—edge. You see, I have been on my own pretty well since I was sixteen. I have never come into contact with many women and I know very little about them, but I know really a lot about men. And unless a girl can size up a man pretty accurately, and know what she's got to deal with, she will never get on. I have got on. I work as a mannequin at Jucies, and I can tell you, Mr. Enderby, that to arrive there is a feat."

"Well, as I was saying, I can size up men pretty accurately. I have never come into contact with many women and I know very little about them, but I know really a lot about men. And unless a girl can size up a man pretty accurately, and know what she's got to deal with, she will never get on. I have got on. I don't know which it is meant to be, so you can supply the colorful details for yourself, to suit your taste. That's the delicious artistry of it, the wiliness of the original design, by gum! We are stuck on it.

Next, please notice the seagull, in silhouette! How graceful, how airy, how like a wet hen. See how it hovers and hovers and still hovers in one place day after day (except on Monday mornings), as no seagull on earth, or in the air, ever did, beating the continuous flight record to smithereens. Has it not hovered there for almost two years? Bless it! It has. And now it is getting tired out and wants to land, somewhere, anywhere, soon!

NOTE FURTHER
Then notice the skyline of the immortal Olympics! That outline of the famous range is getting blunter, like the old saw. It needs sharpening and grinding (this roverism is a grind that could do with a whetstone, just as the author, the editor, the assistant editor, the sports editor, the social editor, the repertorial staff, compilers, proofreaders, business department, etc., including the man who licks the stamps, to do no more trial designs for a new cut. No more! Not much!)

And if you read The Daily Colonist, as you should do, every blessed day except Monday, you will see
